Dean Hyman Honored by Law Review

Jacob D. "Jack" Hyman, dean from 1953 to 1964, and currently professor emeritus of law, was honored by the editorial board of the Buffalo Law Review and Law Review alumni/ae on Monday, April 3, at a dinner at the Center For Tomorrow.

"For decades, you have been a treasure at the Law School, unrelenting in your commitment, selflessness and willingness to give of your time and energy to the school, the students and the bar," said Dean David B. Filvaroff.

Professor Wade J. Newhouse, longtime colleague and friend of Hyman's, told the audience of Hyman's "dedication, deep concern about the law and the legal profession, commitment to justice, commitment to teaching, commitment to caring for students, and an abiding loyalty to the Buffalo Law School marked by deep-seated optimism about its future."

It was the Third Annual Law Review Dinner held in recent years. Last year, Prof. Louis DelCotto was the honoree on the occasion of the Law Review's 40th anniversary.
